

Outbreak, Surveillance & Investigation Reports (OSIR) Journal

Pawin Padungtod, DVM, PhD

Chief Editor

International Technical Coordinator

Emergency Center for Transboundary Animal Diseases, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, Country Office for Viet Nam

Dr. Pawin Padungtod received his Doctor of Veterinary Medicine from Chulalongkorn University in Thailand and his PhD in Epidemiology from Michigan State University. Before joining CDC, he worked as an Associate Professor of Veterinary Public Health at Chiang Mai University in Thailand and as Regional Project Coordinator and Laboratory Expert at the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations. As the chief of Animal-Human Interface Program (AHIP), Global Disease Detection SE Asia Regional Center in Thailand, he is responsible for the development and implementation of activities to reduce the risk of zoonotic pathogens; promote a holistic “one health” approach to more effectively protect human health, and provide expert advice and mentorship for young scientist and other partners on veterinary epidemiology and zoonoses.